DESIGN Camp 2019

Explore, discover and create at KMAD's Design Camp this summer. Classes range from exploratory creative expression to rigorous investigation of design principles. We are committed to nurturing children's love for creating, whatever their age, interest or skill level.

Introducing THREE New CLASSES this summer!

EXPLORING GRAPHIC DESIGN ages 8-10
JUNE 17-21 / 9AM-12PM
Students explore image-making, basic typography, and the integration of the two through a series of fun and fast-paced assignments and exercises. All projects focus on a theme while addressing form, composition, hierarchy, and creativity.

CHARACTER DESIGN ages 8-10
JUNE 17-21 / 9AM-12PM
Explore two-dimensional and sculptural character design using a variety of materials and techniques. Focus on the look and feel of the character as well as developing the story of who the character is and what motivates them.

ZINES ages 11-15
JUNE 24-28 / 9AM-12PM
Explore the world of DIY print media and zine culture! Students will develop their artistic voice by using zines as an outlet for discussing who they are and what they care about. Skills taught in this class include illustration, assemblage, bookmaking, creative and narrative writing.
